

Queen Elizabeth I

met many of her citizens as she travelled around,

Clip clop, clip clop.

this is the story of the most surprising visit of them all...

Suddenly there was a strange, whirring and clanking noise.

5

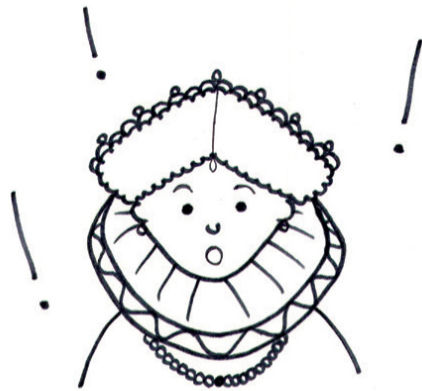

The door of The Time Machine swung open,

6

and Batman appeared!

7

Queen Elizabeth one was VERY surprised!

8

First

First, Batman showed the Queen his moves;

AIEEEE, POW,ARRRRGH
AWK!

9

Then the Queen whispered to Batman, “could you use your brain power to solve a tricky problem?”

Should I ever marry?

10

Then

Batman thought and solved the Queens question.

11

Finally

He whispered,

“No, your Majesty, you should not marry.”

12

“Gosh!”, The Queen exclaimed.

13

After that, Batman presented Queen Elizabeth I with a special gift in a big box.

14

What was inside?

15

It was a distress signal device!

16

Batman said to the Queen
“if you ever need help,
you should send me a bat signal.”

17

Queen Elizabeth was really pleased with her gift.

18

Suddenly, The Time Machine
started whirring.

19

The cogs clicked clanked and rumbled.

20

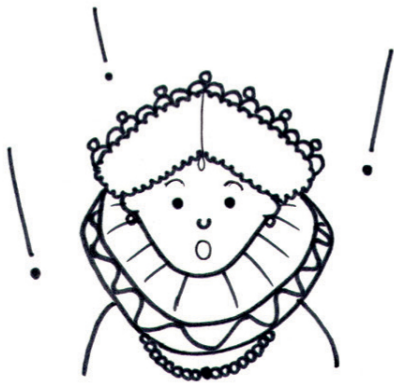

Batman said goodbye and climbed back into the machine

21

Then all of a sudden The Time Machine was GONE!

22

The Queen was left totally amazed.

What an exciting visit!

23

When Titania woke, the first person she saw was Bottom - with a donkey head!

She gasped,
"Oh what an angel!"

Titania told her fairies to bring Bottom apricots, grapes, figs and honey.

She put flowers around his big, long ears and soon they all fell asleep.

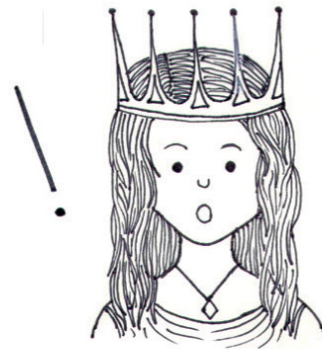

29

30

Oberon was very jealous and removed the spell from Titania. He said, "Awake my sweet Queen."

31

Titania woke up and was very surprised, "What an ugly donkey!"

32

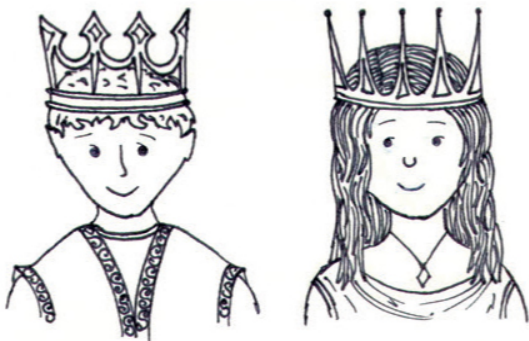

Puck quickly turned Bottom's head back to normal.

33

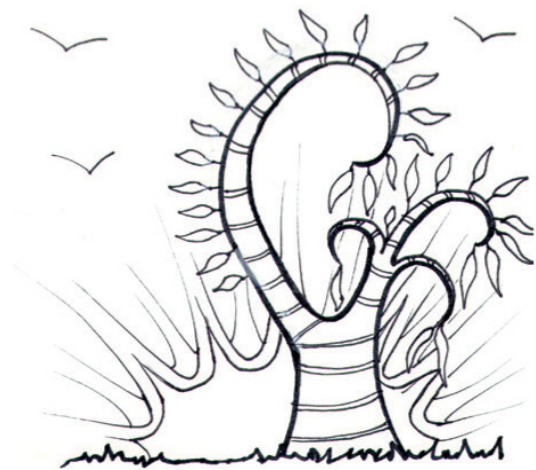

He was very shocked and ran off into the woods.

34

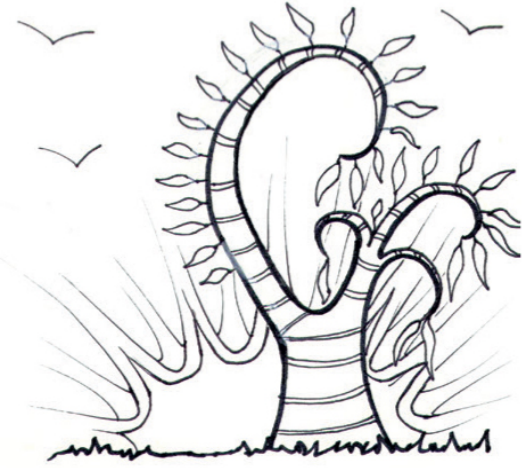

Titania and Oberon looked at each other and smiled, they were friends again.

35

The sun started to rise, and the birds began to sing in the trees.

36

Morning was coming.
What an exciting night it had been!

The End