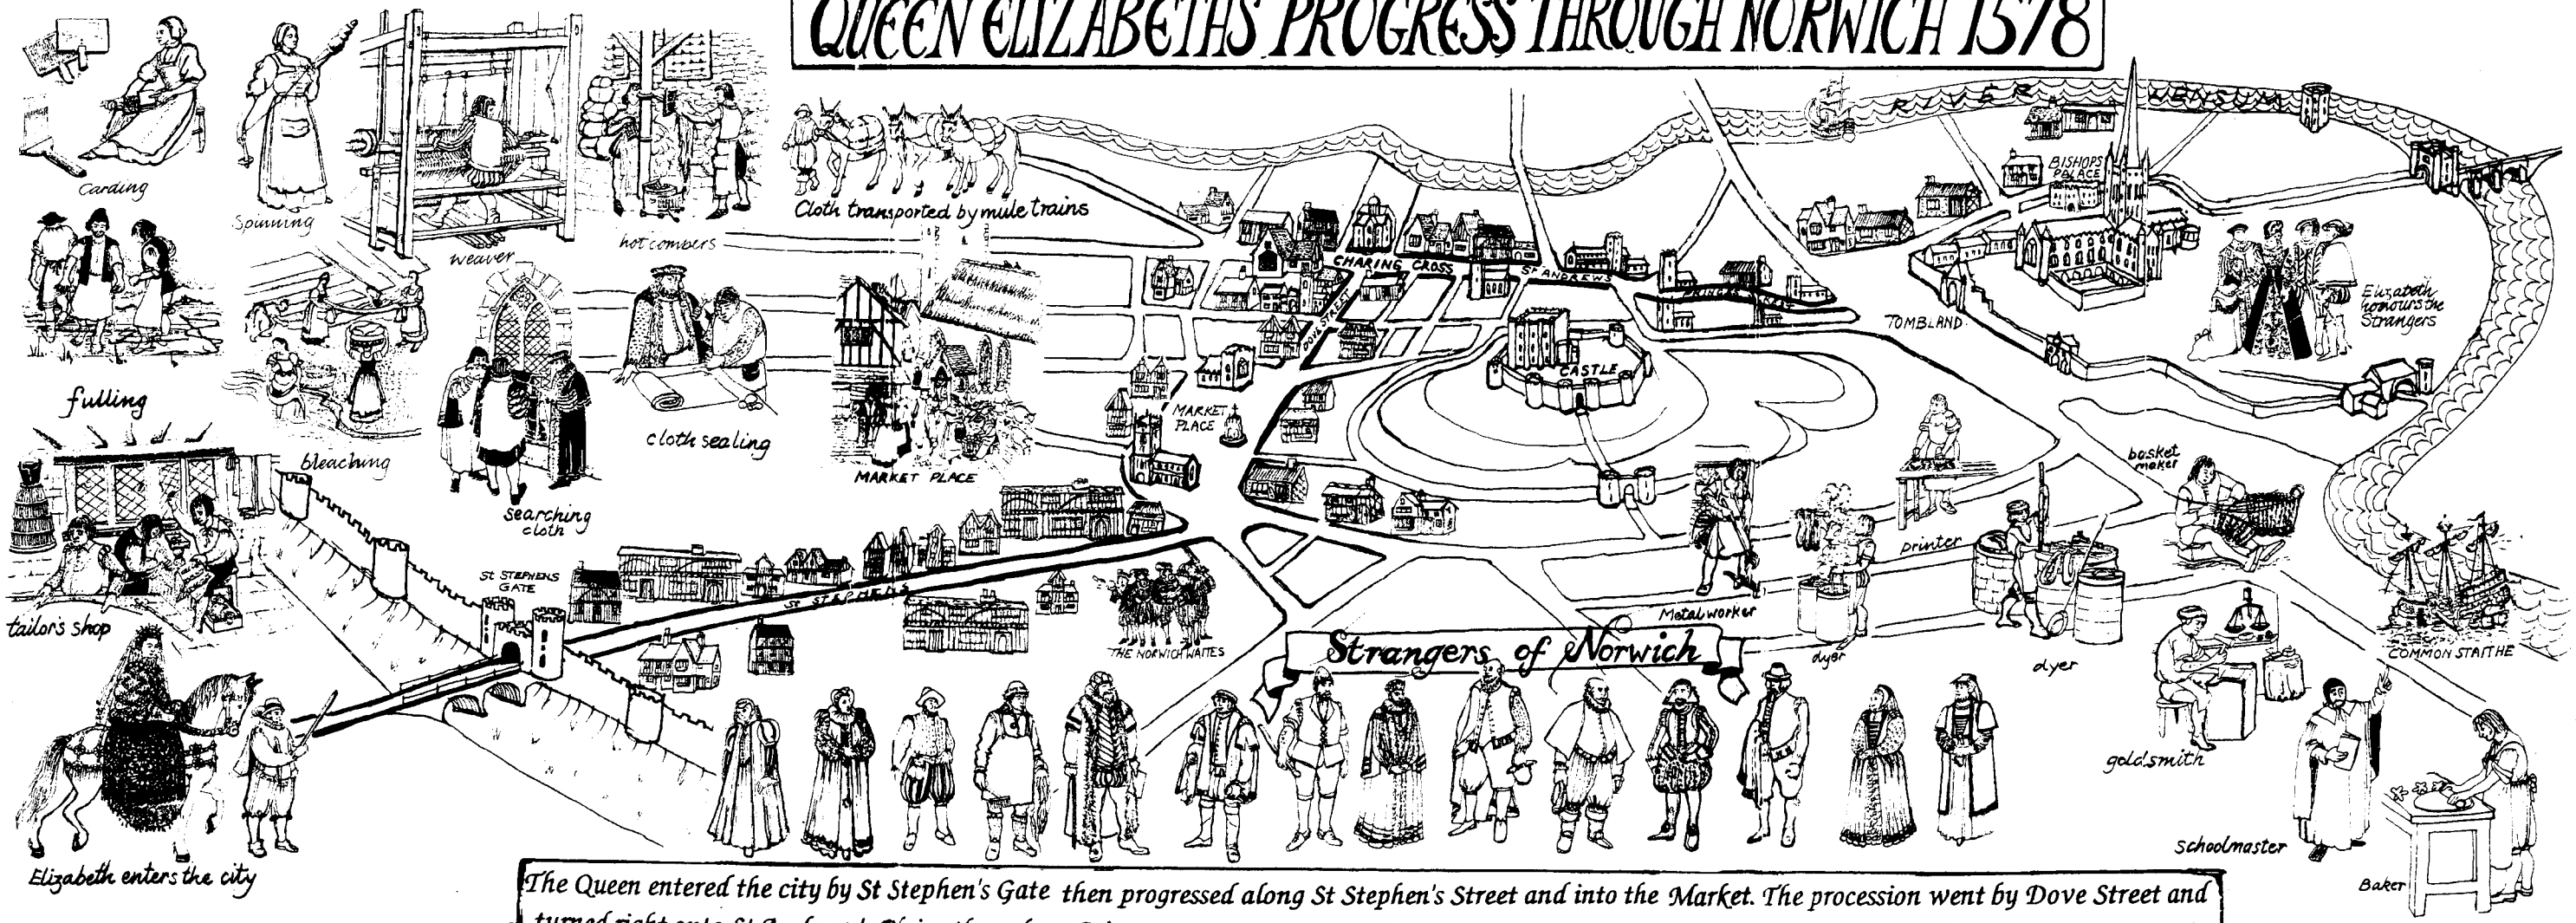
QUEEN ELIZABETH'S PROGRESS THROUGH NORWICH 1578



The Queen entered the city by St Stephen's Gate then progressed along St Stephen's Street and into the Market. The procession went by Dove Street and turned right onto St Andrews's Plain; then along Princes Street, crossing Tombland and so to the Bishop's Palace where she and her attendants lodged.

Some of the Walloon & Dutch craftsmen, with their trades and professions, who were living in the Norwich parishes through which the Queen passed in 1578.

- St. MICHAEL at PLEA:-
  Artist: Doctor/Surgeon: Dutch Minister: Schoolmaster: Merchant.
- IN St. STEPHENS:-
  Hosier; Bay Weaver. Wool Comber.
- St PETER HUNGATE:-
  Woolcombers: Weaver: Mason:
- IN St.PETER MANCROFT:-
  Hatters, Locksmith: Basketmaker: Shoemaker: Tailors: Weaver: Joiner
- St SIMON & St JUDE:?
  Builders: Carpenters: Smith
- St JOHN MADDERMARKET
  Dyer: Tailors: printer:Smith: Weaver: Carpenter:Woolcomber/Merchant.
- St GEORGE TOMBLAND:-
  Weavers
- St. ANDREWS-
  Doctor/Schoolmaster:Goldsmith:Merchant Dyer: Clerk of the Bay Cloth Hall:
- St MARTYN PALACE GATE
  Silk & Velour Weavers; Master Bay Weaver: Chief Dyer: Hemp Spinner: Draper:Bone Setter

COPYRIGHT HELEN HOYTE