

Top Secret

ONLY For the eyes of Walsingham's Watchers.

Congratulations you are about to become one of 'Walsingham's Watchers', the secretive spies infiltrating high-level meetings at the court of Elizabeth I. To prove that you have what it takes to join us, there are 3 tasks you must complete.

Task 1: Sharp eyes - Gaze at Greenwich on the menu

Watchers need to have keen eyes to pick up on details in the room you will be entering. Spy on the Privy Council meeting at Greenwich, and find the following hidden objects...

Task 2: Alert ears - Gaze at Long Melford on the menu

Watchers must listen carefully for any pieces of information useful to this challenge. This time, join the Privy Council in Long Melford, and answer at least one of the following questions...

1. Where does Walsingham assure the Queen his 'eyes and ears' (Watchers) are?
2. Why does the Queen say Mary I should live?
3. What does the Queen say her 'future marriage and children' will bring to the people?

Task 3: Report to the Queen

On completion of these 3 tasks, you must present this parchment for inspection by the Watcher agent who is in charge today. When they have signed and sealed this document, you are officially a part of the Watcher network.

God speed, and God save the Queen!
