

Top Secret

ONLY For the eyes of Walsingham's Watchers.

Congratulations you are about to become one of 'Walsingham's Watchers', the secretive spies infiltrating high-level meetings at the court of Elizabeth I. To prove that you have what it takes to join us, there are 2 tasks you must complete.

Task 1: Alert ears - Watch the Norwich film

Watchers must listen carefully for any pieces of information useful to this challenge. This time, join the Privy Council in Norwich, and answer at least one of the following questions...

1. What did the 24 Aldermen and the City Recorder wear to greet the Queen?
2. What is the mythical character 'King Gurgunt' supposed to have built?
3. How does the Queen describe the little boy in the Strangers' Pageant?

Task 2: Report to the Queen

On completion of these 3 tasks, you must present this parchment for inspection by the Watcher agent who is in charge today. When they have signed and sealed this document, you are officially a part of the Watcher network.

God speed, and God save the Queen!
