

It's 1578

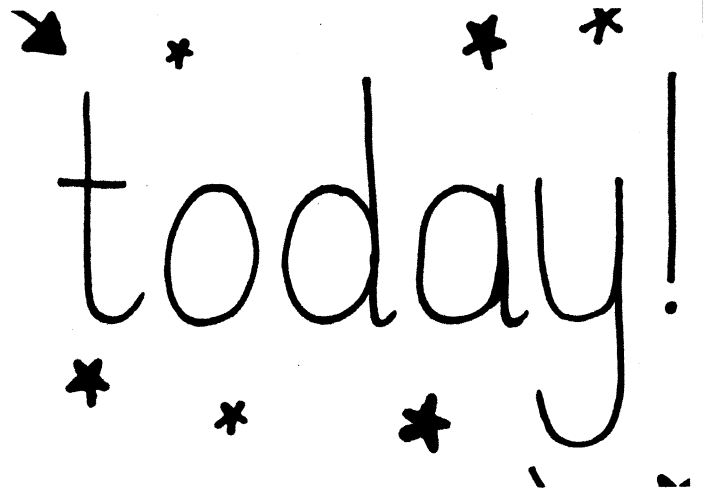

and Queen Elizabeth I

1 2

is visiting Norwich

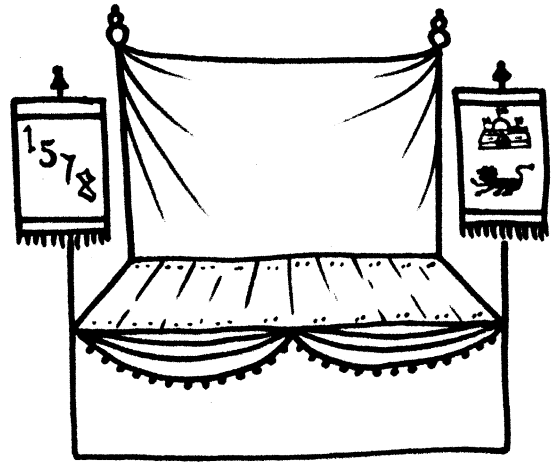

Today!

3 4

The best spinners,
weavers and stitchers

5

are putting on a pageant.

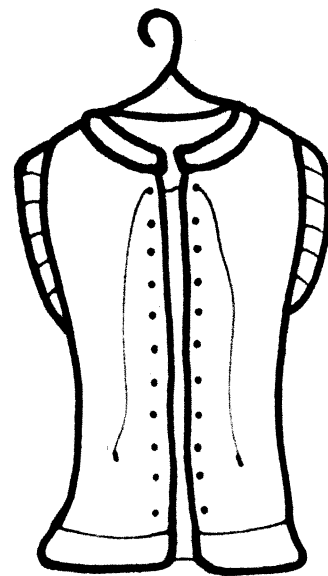

6

First...

First, they have a good wash

7

and put on their finest clothes.

8

Then they walk to St Stephen's Gate.

9

When they arrive, they see a brightly painted stage. On the stage are their looms and spinning wheels.

10

Thomas Churchyard tells the textile workers to sit down, work and smile when the Queen arrives to watch.

11

Listen!
Clip Clop, Clip clop!

12

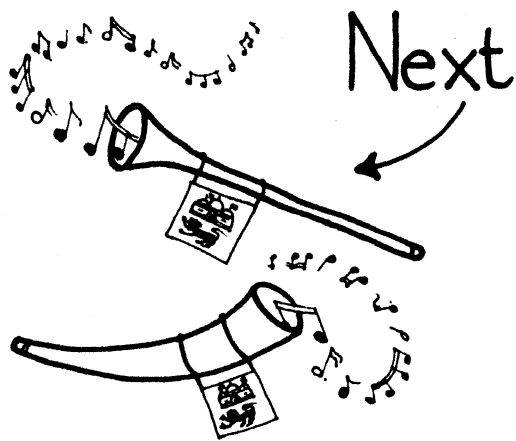

Hooray! Hooray!
Hooray!
The Queen arrives on time!

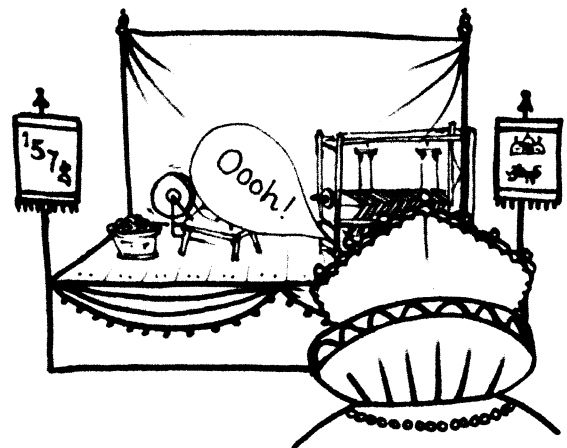

13 14

The Mayor bows and says,
“Welcome to Norwich
Your Majesty.”

Next, the City Waits start to sing and play their trumpets.

The Queen looks curiously at each of the performers in turn.

She watches:

Norwich
does love you well!

1 little child wearing his finest clothes bows and addresses the Queen,

21

“ Most gracious prince, Our Sovereign Queen,
In this small show, m our lfe is seen.
From combed wool makes the precious thread;
This skill and art provides our bread.
To feed each mouth no hands are still;
We work our looms to pay the bills.
We show our things that now we sell;
Our City, Norwich, does love you
well!”

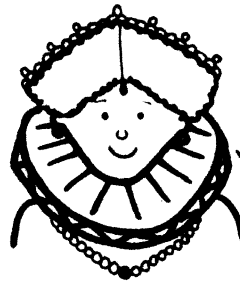

22

At the end

At the end of the show

23

Thank you!

Hooray!

Her Majesty smiles and thanks the good people of Norwich.
Everybody cheers,
“Hooray!”
