were excited

But...

But

the Mayor of Norwich said, "what can I do? Norwich is vile, streets covered in filth and poo in a pile!"

The citizen's replied, "no wonder you're sad, there's so much to do. "So let's get to work and make Norwich like new!"

They went to the marketplace, near The Guildhall

The Mayor stood on the balcony and announced, "Good citizens of Norwich, there's much to prepare; it will take many days but do not despair."

Help and instruct
"Thomas Churchyard is here to help and instruct."
"Our fine city will shine when the muck has been chucked."

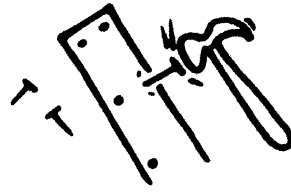

The citizens cheered,
"Hooray!"

The Mayor spoke again, "I have made a new law, we must tidy this city!

13

Clean

Mend

Decorate

"Clean, mend and decorate, make it look pretty."

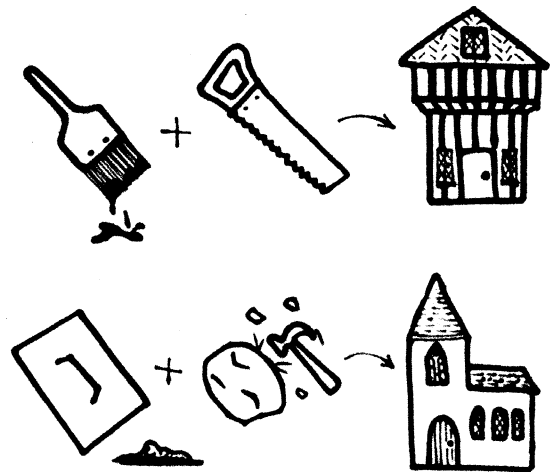

14

The citizens cheered
AGAIN!

"Hooray!"

15

The Mayor spoke once more, "Painters and carpenters will make houses look fine, plasters and masons will make churches shine."

16

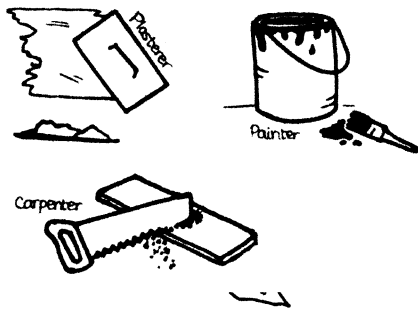

The citizens joined in, "get your brooms, cloths and shovels let's get cleaning our streets."

The citizens cheered their loudest.

"HOORAY!"

Next few weeks...

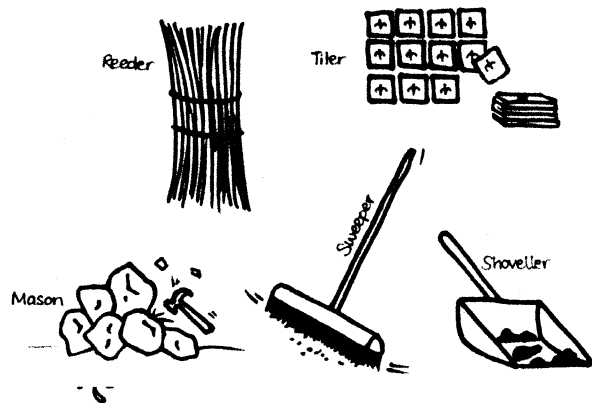

Over the next few weeks, the citizens started to prepare for a pageant.

Plasters: "We're plastering the walls."

Carpenters: "We're hammering the planks."

Painters: "We're decorating the houses."

Masons: "We're tapping at the stonework."

Reeders: "We're laying the thatched roofs."

Tilers: "We're tiling the floors and fireplaces."

Sweepers: We're sweeping the streets and chimneys."

Shovellers: "We're shovelling the dung."

Finally...

Finally, the citizens were finished.

The fine city of Norwich was sparkling and clean!
